

The Jackson Sun

jacksonsun.com

September 17, 2006

Section: Business

Edition: Madison Co. and West TN Edition

Spotlights

Settlement Solutions welcomes new mediators

Settlement Solutions LLC announced recently that the Honorable Joe G. Riley has joined the company as a mediator. Riley retired from the bench in 2004 after serving seven years on the Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals in Jackson and 18 years as Circuit Court Judge in Dyer and Lake counties. As a circuit court judge, he was one of the pioneers of judicial mediations in civil and domestic cases even prior to the adoption of Rule 31. He has been approved since 2005 by the Tennessee Supreme Court as a Rule 31 Listed Mediator in the field of Family Law and General Civil Mediation.

Riley is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the University of Tennessee (1969) and is an Order of the Coif graduate of the University of Tennessee College of Law (1972).

Edward L. Martindale Jr. also has joined the company as a mediator. Martindale's legal career has focused on personal injury litigation for more than 20 years. He has been approved since 2006 by the Tennessee Supreme Court as a Rule 31 Listed Mediator in the field of General Civil Mediation. Martindale received his B.B.A. from Lambuth College in 1980 and his J.D. from Memphis State University Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law in 1983. Settlement Solutions, which is based in Memphis, will serve all of Tennessee's 95 counties. Martindale, whose legal practice is located in Jackson, will serve the Jackson and Madison County area. Settlement Solutions LLC provides mediation and arbitration services to law firms, insurance companies and corporations located throughout the state of Tennessee. It has offices in Memphis, Nashville, Knoxville and Chattanooga. The company can be found on the Web at www.settlementsol.com.